

The Year 2018

【寄付/Donation】

Takanori Itsukage(Business person) Yen300,000

Yoichiro Tateiwa(Executive Editor of InFact) Yen878,779

【受託収益/Consignment Income】

Japan Center for Money and Politics Yen1,266,840

The Year 2019

【寄付/Donation】

Crowdfunding Yen1,824,305

Takanori Itsukage (Business person) Yen1,000,000

Yoichiro Tateiwa(Executive Editor of InFact) Yen1,903,700

【受託収益/Consignment Income】

Japan Center for Money and Politics Yen1.100,000

The Year 2020 年

【寄付/Donation】

Takanori Itsukage (Business person) Yen770,000

Yoichiro Tateiwa(Executive Editor of InFact) Yen1,084,722

【新型コロナ支援金/ Covid 19 Emergency Small Business Assistance Grants】

Grants for small businesses that are having difficulty paying staffing and office maintenance costs due to revenues falling below the previous year's level as a result of Covid19. This is a government bailout package paid in a lump sum by the Small Business Agency, but InFact confirms that the grants are nothing to do with any government business and the ministry has no intention of involvement in fact-checking, investigative reporting, or any other aspect of InFact's business.

The Year 2021

【受託収益/Consignment Income】

SIGNING(commercial company) Yen3,519,615

Supporting fact check experiment by the IT company.

【新型コロナ支援金/ Covid 19 Emergency Small Business Assistance Grants】

Yen 1,092,520

Grants for small businesses that are having difficulty paying staffing and office maintenance costs due to revenues falling below the previous year's level as a result of Covid19. This is a government bailout package paid in a lump sum by the Small Business Agency, but InFact confirms that the grants are nothing to do with any government business and the agency has no intention of involvement in fact-checking, investigative reporting, or any other aspect of InFact's business.

The Year 2022

【寄付/Donation】

Takanori Itsukage (Business person) Yen300,000

Hiroshi Tamaki(Retired person) Yen300,000

Yoichiro Tateiwa(Executive Editor of InFact) Yen1,838,000

【新型コロナ支援金/ Covid 19 Emergency Small Business Assistance Grants】

Yen 1,000,000

Grants for small businesses that are having difficulty paying staffing and office maintenance costs due to revenues falling below the previous year's level as a result of Covid19. This is a government bailout package paid in a lump sum by the

Small Business Agency, but InFact confirms that the grants are nothing to do with any government business and the agency has no intention of involvement in fact-checking, investigative reporting, or any other aspect of InFact's business.